

self direct member★★★★

Terms & Conditions

self direct Terms & Conditions

Members support the principles and values of self direct as expressed through statements on the self direct website and in self direct publications

Members share their learning with other self direct members

Members work creatively and imaginatively with other self direct members to find effective ways to put Self-Directed Support into practice

Members use the self direct member logo in a way that positively promotes self direct and the member

Self direct supports members

Self direct listens to members of self direct and takes action to improve the way that members benefit from associate membership of self direct

Self direct reserves the right to end membership of any person or organisation that acts in such a way as to bring self direct into disrepute by association through their membership of self direct

These terms and conditions can be changed by self direct at any time but self direct will always do so only after due consideration and after consulting with the members

Members will be notified of any changes to the terms and conditions of membership

These terms and conditions should be read in conjunction with the self direct website terms and conditions